

Arrowtown House

Arrowtown, Queenstown

Boutique Accommodation

Arrowtown House is situated near the center of the delightful historic village of Arrowtown. This boutique accommodation is just 15 minutes drive from Queenstown International Airport, and just a 2 minute walk to superb restaurants, small galleries and shops.

Arrowtown is one of New Zealand's most charming small towns, authentic, relaxing but sophisticated with a strong historic precinct reflecting the goldrush era of the 1860's to 1880's. Galleries, shops and an informative small local museum and some of the regions best dining make this a perfect base for exploring the region.

Surrounded by some of the most picturesque hiking and cycling trails in the country. Just a short stroll from Arrowtown House, you are able to pick up a rental bike to explore the local trails passing lakes and rivers and visit vinyards along the way. Whether your passion is golf, fishing, hiking, cycling, or just relaxing, it's all here. You may even like to try your hand at gold panning. Your hosts Cathy and Jason, will happily lend you a gold pan, and give you a few handy tips.
